

Please postpone your voting date on this issue and allow time for more public debate on something of such massive importance. Ignoring the obvious discontent you have been witnessing in these last few days, shows a deliberate disregard for the views and opinions of the American people. You don't seem to be familiar with what most of us refer to as democracy.